CLASSES and AFTERNOON PROGRAMS

We hope to be able to offer classes in January 2022. This will depend on the progress of the pandemic, on the policies of Kortright Presbyterian Church and on the wishes of our members.

We have already set a policy, for class/afternoon program attendance, that all students and teachers must be fully vaccinated. We may ask you to be masked.

At this time, possible classes will be:

Beginner Design with Ruth Douglas
Crazy Quilting with Judy Eckhardt
Wool Appliqué with Bridget O'Brien
Pocket Art Quilt with Judy McMullan
Beginner Hardanger with Alison Jackson
Independent Class

If we are able to offer classes, another Registration will take place in December (date TBA). Because we will be paying rent once again, we will be obliged to charge another $40. Afternoon programs will also be offered.

If we cannot offer classes, we will continue to offer online meetings and programs and there will be no second registration needed.

	November 16	Christmas hands-on		April 5
	November 30	Christmas hands-on		April 19
				April 26

For the Fall 2021 term, we will meet online using Zoom. You will be informed by email ahead of time when you need to supply fabric/needles/etc. for a Hands-On program. All programs are planned to make best use of supplies you already have in your “stash”.

Assuming all goes well:

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING - The AGM will be Tuesday, April 19, 2022.

The business meeting is followed by our famous Pot Luck Lunch and socializing.

OPEN HOUSE - The CEGG Open House and Tea is Tuesday, April 26th, 2022 from 1-5 pm at Kortright Presbyterian Church. The Open House is a chance for us to display all those pieces of embroidery done in class, at workshops or on our own.

Contact Persons: Please feel free to contact anyone on the CEGG Executive (see the list in the newsletter). Our website is cegguelph.ca and our email is cegguelph@gmail.com
